

Who are we and why is our work important?

The Geauga Council for Arts and Culture is a non-profit group dedicated to the enrichment of our community through the promotion of education, access and participation in the arts.

We believe people of all ages should have access to arts and cultural activities because:

- ▶ Arts and culture connect people.
- ▶ Participation in the arts enriches lives and strengthens the community.
- ▶ Economic opportunity and support are essential to maintain a vibrant arts community.

What do we do?

We use membership dues and other fund-raising resources and activities to provide opportunities in all the arts - throughout the year. (See our list of current activities on the next page)

Our goals are to:

- ▶ Support existing arts and culture in our county.
- ▶ Develop new ways to create and strengthen arts economy in our county.
- ▶ Promote and collaborate in arts educational programming.
- ▶ Help to make Geauga County an arts and culture destination.

Juried Art Show

Artists enter their works to be judged and awarded by professionals. The art is displayed for show to the public for several weeks. Mailings will go out to artists this summer.

Art in the Mart

Art exhibits are held at Geauga Hospital, Geauga YMCA, and Kent State Geauga. Artists display their works for 3 month periods. Works may be listed for sale - an excellent venue to showcase your work to a large audience and attract buyers. Stop by these venues any time to see great work!

Ovations!

Supporting our youth involved in High School Theater. Awards are presented for spring musicals produced by Geauga County high schools.

Partnerships and Events heART of Geauga Arts Jam on Chardon Square

Because we believe that arts and business are mutually inclusive we will offer the arts in collaboration with the businesses on the square. Music, theater, the visual arts, and dance will be presented by artists who will invite your participation. The event will be family-centered and will include an evening performance at the Theatre Guild. This event will also feature the 4th annual "Stop, Shop or Swap" pop-up shop, which encourages visitors to trade artwork they no longer want, including frames and prints, for other artwork that has been contributed...a "recycling" program for artwork! Pieces will also be available for purchase at very reasonable prices.
